

The Waldorf Institute of Southern California presents
"Conscious Discipline: Who's In Charge Around Here?"
an Early Childhood Workshop with Stephen Spitalny

Discover how to truly connect with young children. In this workshop, learn how to develop a communication style that makes for fewer conflicts and easier resolution in your interactions with young children. Participants will go home with more patience and calm to deal with the stressful situations they may encounter with their children. This workshop is open to anyone who has young children in their daily lives.

When: November 15, 2014

Where: Highland Hall Waldorf School

Time: 8:30 AM - 5:15 PM

Cost: $80

Registration Required

*Group Discounts Available
(WISC practices Accessible to All Tuition)

To register, please visit waldorfteaching.org or contact Connie Vera at office@waldorfteaching.org

Early childhood consultant and writer Stephen Spitalny offers inspiring lectures, workshops and mentoring to teachers and parents around the world. Steve was a kindergarten teacher at the Santa Cruz Waldorf School for 24 years. To learn more about Stephen, please visit his website chamakanda.com or follow his blog at chamakanda.blogspot.com.